You

Lizz Wright

Well well...

Gaining all my confidence and luck
Took me where the combination clutch
A heavy shot of moving in the mist
Someone needs the silence on your lips

I'm staring in wonder today
At some strange narration
Half hearted and full speed ahead
My deal apparition

You you messing around driving with no comfort
You you bringing me pain with no promise
You you jamming me up with the games you play
You you breaking me down with the things you say

Run on stay love foreplay
Run on stay love foreplay

Hey hey that all you got for me

Thank you for what I can't understand (thank you baby)
Welcome to the love you never planned
Maybe you will get to know yourself
Put them crazy toys back on the shelf

This rocket must courage to me
I stole it free moment
I guess you're not at liberty
To say what what's broken

You you messing around driving with no comfort
You you bringing me pain with no promise
You you jamming me up with the games you play
You you breaking me down with the things you say

Run on stay love foreplay
Run on stay love foreplay

Oh baby
It's all you're giving me
Love foreplay
