

Your Love

Lizz Wright

When I think of your sweetness
The love that brought me here
All the times that I wondered
How you would weigh my fear

Now my whole world is changed, baby
In the blinking of an eye
Now that you are gone away
I need your hand in mine

All day, walk around, walk around singing
All day, walk around singing
Wake me up
I'm gonna keep on moving
In the rhythm of your love

I can dance in the field alone
I can sing just like the wind
There's fire in my bones
Gonna burn away the cold

I'm gonna hold the rhythm of your love
Gonna keep it 'til you come
And when my soul starts to moan
I'ma lift my hands and go, yes, I will

All day, walk around, walk around singing
All day, walk around singing
Wake me up, huh
You are the sweetest dream
And I remember your love, yes, I do
All day, walk around, walk around singing
All day, walk around singing
Wake me up
I'm gonna keep on moving
In the rhythm of your love
In the rhythm of your love, say
All day, walk around, walk around singing
All day, walk around singing
Wake me up, huh
You are the sweetest dream
For the longest night
'Til you come, wake me up
Oh, yeah

Wake me up
