

Wat U Mean

Lizzo

Wat u mean? Been up in this thing so long I'm like a sleeve
Covering, I'm outthere please don't be deceived
Roll me up? nigga please!
Don't be presumptuous
I packed you up for lunch and I ate you
You were scrumptious
Literal or not I'm rambunctious, you yellow belly munchkins
Ain't that something! with your oompatiy-doo
Like "ding dong the witch ain't dead, you better look out before she chops your head"
Breaking bread with the Queens at the dinner table
Lapdogs eat scraps if your able
Maybe throw you a bone if I feel like it
Maybe give you some steak if the moods right
Right now homie bow down
Looking at my head like "my head needs a crown"
Crown on the rocks, nigga
Weed in the box, nigga
Give me if you got figures
What I want's a lot bigger!

Wat u mean to me

Lizzo be eating though
Lizzo be hungry
Lizzo big girl small world until it ain't funny
Say my name three times like I'm in destiny's
Yo ho ho and a bottle of 4loko
Chillin with my niggas in the back like man!
Came a long way no umbrellas for the rain
If you came this far you better play the game
Because success and fame be two different things
I remember being sad about boys and stuff
But that was way back in middle school
Now I'm making crowds make noise and stuff
And all my people back home like, "who knew?"
Normally I don't like to toot my own horn
Cause I don't have a car yet, and well that sucks Neing a rapper these days ain't what it seems Man, really you ain't making all the big bucks
But I'm killin it
I'm just saying that I'm feeling the wheeling one would experience while wheeling and gripping the wheel and getting it
And my limericks be the same thing that get me on the cover, tr ick!
