I don't know who you are anymore
I can't keep fighting this unwinnable war
I'm tired and hopeless, but I'd do it
A million times more

I don't know if I'm right anymore
You are the one thing I constantly look for
In the crowd, I'm broken, but I'll find you
So don't close the door

I have loved you
Since the first day we met
I will always love you
I'm gonna tell you, but not quite yet

Cause I know you're broken
And I'm sorry for that
