

Bang

Lizzy McAlpine

What is this feeling I can't control?
Am I dying and I don't know?
Is this the end or
Am I just cold?
My heart is frozen, he chilled me to the bone

Now I, I am the one who kills
Don't think I can? I will
A lion and its prey
I'm waiting for the time to pounce, okay
Cover it up with paint
Smile and play the saint
I'm coming for your throat
Point and aim and

Watch it go down in flames
I'm just a bit insane
If this is what love is, I want all of it
Subscribe me to the pain
Who says that playing nice
Is always the best advice?
Sometimes the only cure for the lonely pays the price

Oh no
I've lost my feet again
In this dirty, dirty world, I slip again
Who am I?
Do I cry for them?
Are we all just walking sinners?
Do we all just get condemned?

Now I, I am the one who kills
Don't think I can, I will Take my hand
And we'll sit in the sand

And watch it go down in flames
I'm just a bit insane
If this is what love is
I want none of it, take away the pain
Who says that playing nice
Is always the worst advice?
Sometimes the only cure for the lonely pays the price

Oh no
