

bliss

Lizzy McAlpine

When I cry, you cry
Is this real life?
I wanna know
Take me down to the coast
It's a new feeling
Not thinking, just feeling
I wanna know
Is this feeling revealing my soul?

Sunburn on my nose
Sun in the sky
Your hand on my thigh
You pick up a rose
From the path down to the beach
You hold it out and say "You're beautiful"
Why'd you do that to me?

This is bliss
When you kiss me
I am so oblivious to what's out there
Don't you worry if I start to stare
Oh, 'cause nothing's wrong
This is how it should have felt all along
Now I feel truly happy
I deserve to be happy

When it rains, I smile
Do you wanna stay a while with me?
Am I falling? Maybe, but it's TBD
Honestly, I love being alive right now
I hate saying goodbye but I love how it feels to let go
I know that it'll help me to grow

Oh, oh, this is bliss
When you kiss me
I am so oblivious to what's out there
Don't you worry if I start to stare
Oh, cause nothing's wrong
This is how it should have felt all along
Now I feel truly happy
I deserve to be happy
