

haven't stopped yet

Lizzy McAlpine

I've been falling in love with you from the moment we met
It's been consistent, a constant persistence and it hasn't stopped yet
It's cold but the window is open, and we sit on the ledge
Breathing in smoke
Breathing in all of this moment
So I don't forget

I've been falling in love with you since September 13th
I didn't know why you were on my mind so frequently
And when you kissed me for the first time I didn't want you to leave
Holding you close
Holding in those three words
That could change everything

On my couch, watching tv
Then you paused it, turned to see me
And you told me that you loved me
Nothing was ever the same
There has never been a moment
When I wish you hadn't paused it
On my couch, as we watched the office
Nothing was ever the same

I've been falling in love with you since the moment we met
And I haven't stopped yet
