

her

Lizzy McAlpine

She was a diamond
In a sea of storms
Her brown eyes
Are finally shimmering on their own
She knew, she knew, she knew
That she would be okay

For a moment
Time stopped
For a moment
It was just her
And the things on that mountaintop
She knew, she knew, she knew
That everything was okay

Oooh
This girl
She was fragile
And so it seemed
She only showed the side of her
That people wanted to see
She wanted to see the world
But was trapped in a cocoon
So she hacked a rocket ship
Headed straight for the moon
