

PERFECT

Lizzy McAlpine

Happy lies
Sheltered lives
Who knows where
We go when we die?
If we're good do we get a prize?

Can I say
By the way
I like the way you smile when I cry
Do you need to know why?

We fall and then we fall again
We talk, but do we really make amends?
Tell me what's wrong, I'll write a song
You light the bong and we'll forget, again

We wanna change but do we know how?
We're comfortable and so we stay out of it
Let it run its course
Say no more and I'll pretend it doesn't exist

We're perfect
Perfectly fucked, certainly screwed
But isn't that how you sing the in denial blues
We can argue then sit
Staring up at walls too thick to punch through
But that's what happens with the in denial blues

Happy lies
Bloodshot eyes
I'm okay but are you alright?
If I guess do I get a prize?

Say my name
No more blame
I like the way you yell when I cry
I don't know why

We fall and then we fall again
We talk, but do we really make amends?
Tell me what's wrong, I'll write a song
You light the bong and we'll forget, again

We wanna change but do we know how?
I love you but it seems we've grown out of it
I care about you, always got you
Never doubt my love cause it's that real shit

We're perfect
Perfectly fucked, certainly screwed
But isn't that how you sing the in denial blues
We can argue then sit
Staring up at walls too thick to punch through
But that's what happens with the in denial blues
