

Shifting

Lizzy McAlpine

My life is shifting
I can feel it in the way I smile
I need to go, I need to get out
I haven't felt this in a while

My life is shifting (ooh ooh)
And it's all because of you (ooh ooh ooh)
I need to get up and get over
But it's hard getting over you

Oh, (ooh ooh ooh)
I want you to be happy
You deserve the world (the world)
If I could pluck it out of the universe
You'd be the first one I'd call (first one I'd call)

(Ooh ooh ooh)
I hope someone loves you
In all the ways I never could (I never could)
One day, maybe five years from now
I'll bump into you

So please never forget me
I know it is time (it is time)
Honeydew burns easier
Love you, and that's a goodbye
