

so are you

Lizzy McAlpine

It's ok to cry
Every day if you have to
It's ok to sleep
Peace from the war

It's alright to sing
Let it bring joy to the sorrow
It's alright to cry
Some more

I don't know your pain but I will fight
I won't let this go even if doing what's right
Isn't easy
I'm tired, believe me, but
So are you

I don't know your pain but I will stand
I won't let this go so take my hand
It's not easy
I'm tired, believe me, but
So are you
So are you

It's ok to cry
Or to laugh if you need to
It's ok to sleep
Peace from the war
