

Stranger

Llona

Oh you took everything from me
All the memories I have, you took everything complete
Many things I no dey believe
Because I be so fucked up and I'm really down on my knees
But do I gotta say these things before you believe?
Or do I gotta take this pain before you go see? (nobody)
Nobody tell me say naso e go be
But I cannot let my family bleed

Oh you just a stranger
Stranger to me now
My mind is made up
I cannot believe you
This is your nature
You're just a player
Without you I'm safer
Without you I'm safer
Oh without you I'm safer

Forgetting my face in life's mirror, underwater
I breathe
Should I, back to the surface, swim?
Should I leave, becoming him?
If the waves carry, me; will it set free?
