Lloyd Banks

Yeah
That's how it go sometimes
Ups and downs
Fuck arounds
Let's get it

Yo, when all the haters come around, they gotta' squint, they hands froze
Might even take a picture of it too, that's Instagram goals
Found me a piece, a place to stay, you messy bitches can't go
You may not agree with what I think, but gotta' understand though
There's only one life you could get, gotta' map out the plan slow
A world of dummies, gone take apart in the propagand show
If you were me, you super wrong, I'm moving Tom and camo
The movement strong, I cruise alone, that new alarm, you can't flow
Too many actors on the set, you had to leave the scene
Where you don't need a man, you'd rather read a meme
Pointed an infrared beam 'cause you thought he was green
But ain't no brown-nose in there
Let's toast to legal cream
The landscape is necessary, you know what cobra's rating
The win is gratifying
The doubt is motivation
Always been underrated
Due for an over statement
I'm one of one, second to none with bum replacements

All I know's he made you the one
So the past don't really matter, got the patience for nothin'
It's cloudy now but when the rain is gone vacations'll come
And for every day it pain, a hunnid days in the sun
The better version of these what I'm on the race to become
They say the money changes, only ones that's changing is them
It's time to make it now
I've spent too many days in the slum
Be careful who you love, them feelings came with a gun
Murda one

Uh, in the beginning, it's always harder to sell a vision
You think I'm here 'cause of talent, it was the repetition
My G went off standing up, you gotta' protect tradition
My knuckle print on the glass, had to connect in prison
My ear was open to elders talking, that's extra wisdom
We all got more than two open eyes, the best religion
Don't tie yourself up, you don't wanna be in a stressed position
Even the most disrespectful gotta' respect the system
When love will fail, problems fly, drama monetize
Do right get pushed to the side, you gone get popularized
Need you reshuffle these cards, this deck is tainted
A couple of times I held my hand out, you left me hangin'
I'm on the ride to try to get close, possibly frame 'em
If these walls can talk, they'd spit up blood too, time to repaint 'em
Uh, this social's changes
Fuck the long-distance complaining
They make sure wipers for raining
My real life's entertaining

All I know's he made you the one

So the past don't really matter, got the patience for nothin'
It's cloudy now but when the rain is gone vacations'll come
And for every day it pain, a hunnid days in the sun
The better version of these what I'm on the race to become
They say the money changes, only ones that's changing is them
It's time to make it now
