

Silver

Lo-Fang

Don't let me be the one to hold you back
I'll be the one who's blind with cataracts
I'll bring God silver rings and heart attacks
All you need most is what I seem to lack
(All you need most is what...)

Don't let me be the one to hold you back
Sift through the paperwork and share a laugh
Stole you the light when all you see is black
All you need most is what I seem to lack

Finally found out you're a liar
The ritual of questions
Until you do unfold,
Unfold, unfold yourself
To me, to me
For me
