

Stop

Lo Moon

You told me that you wanted, something I couldn't offer
The well is dry exhausted
Now I don't see the point in guessing, I'm over here obsessing
Oh God it's so depressing

One by one fall back in line in sequence
Communions save the demons
Keeps everyone believing
Feels like maybe you'll never see it the way I do, it's easy
We're all looking for meaning

So why do I give you all that I got
When all that I've got will never be enough
And in your eyes I see all that I'm not
And all that I've lost will never be enough

While I sank to the bottom you sang him Dolly Parton
Don't think that I've forgotten, what it felt like to be another
r
Thousand wounds left to suffer, wonder how ill recover

So why do I give you all that I got?
When all that I've got will never be enough
And in your eyes I see all that I'm not
And all that I've lost will never be enough
For you, for us, oh God is it ever gonna stop
For you, for us, oh God is it ever gonna stop

Are you all getting all getting what you came for?
Are you all getting all getting what you came for?

So why do I give you all that I got?
When all that I've got will never be enough
And in your eyes I see all that I'm not
And all that I've lost will never be enough
For you, for us, oh God is it ever gonna stop
For you, for us, oh God is it ever gonna stop
Ever gonna stop
For you, for us, oh God is it ever gonna stop
For you, for us, oh God is it ever gonna stop
