

Today

Lo-Pro

When I wake up I want to feel like I'm somewhere else
I don't want to be stuck inside of this shell

But I can't just try to make it go away
When I can't deny that I feel this way today

When I wake up I want to be someone else
I want to shed my skin and everything within as well

But I can't just try to make it go away
When I can't deny that I feel this way today

When I wake up I want to feel like I'm
somewhere else
So wake me up I'd feel much better

But I can't just try to make it go away
When I can't deny that I feel this way today
