Aggressive Evolution

Loathe

Now I uncover and enclose through cracking glass
Yes, repeating again, and again, and again
The pursuit and blame will be unreal
By fight and flight, my decision sealed

I enter, we exit
Fleeting thoughts and fears
And again

We will dance on moonlit shimmering streets
But when we get there
Will you see what I see?
Now, we exit

Weary mind, cradled
Trapped within the seat
It shakes excitedly
Because our eyes can finally meet

It's panic fueled
And you're blinded by the sun
And again

We will dance on moonlit shimmering streets
But when we get there
Will you see what I see?
Weary mind, cradled
Trapped within the seat
But when we get there
Will you see?

Intertwined
I weave inside your mind
Two worlds collide
As our shadows die
