

Babylon...

Loathe

Split my mind
Waste of time
Left behind
Collapsed life

Step on the styli of this bad dream
And take this life from me
Will I walk alone forever?
In solace and in sleep
Concave me in my dreams
And send me back
Send me back to sleep

My life lost from being buried in thick sheets
Concave me in my dreams and send me back to sleep
I lost myself back there, inside an empty space
I wanna go back, I wanna go back
Just let me go back, just let me go

Split my mind
Waste of time
Collapsed life
