

Wake me up
I see it in the corner of my room
I cannot feel, I cannot move
Panic shoots through these veins
I can't escape this
I can't escape this

These chains, bind me by mind
Acceptance is my only way out
Screaming won't help me now
Screaming won't save me now

Will this darkness be my fate?

An unshifting weight buries me
Buries me
It buries me

Haunted silent screams won't leave my mind
No matter how hard I try
Paralysed, unable to wake from this moment
Wake from this moment

I try to scream, but all of my prayers they go unanswered
I try to scream, but all of my prayers they go unanswered

Back and forth, my mind won't rest
Back and forth, my mind...
