

Two-Way Mirror

Loathe

Inconsistent and inconcise
Blood of blood and life of life
Looking through the eyes of a life lived twice
Mirroring emotions
Sharing the same vice
Precious vice

Hoping to find faith
Miming dissolving grace
Just say "I know"

Few and far between
You appear
Give me the sounds I need to hear
Losing seconds that liberate in tears

Hoping to find faith
Miming dissolving grace
Just say "I know" it's all in our heads
Just say "I know" and I'll stay here instead

What would you do if you weren't afraid?

Hoping to find faith
Miming dissolving grace
Just say "I know"

Hoping to find faith
Miming dissolving grace
Just say "I know" it's all in our heads
Just say "I know" and I'll stay here instead
