

MENTOR 2.0

Loboda

Just like a moth to the flame
Was it pleasure or pain?
I'm slowly going insane
Does love still run through my veins?

This push and pull game it cuts like a knife
The more it hurts the more I feel alive
You look so handsome but I feel so blind
Never mind

Yesterday doesn't matter
Cause my love is the only mentor
Each moment fulfills my heart
That's why my eyes are
Shining so bright

Yesterday doesn't matter
Cause my love is the only mentor
Each moment fulfills my heart
That's why my eyes are
Shining so bright

We crash like waves in the see
We fall apart easily
Hold me so tight in your hands
We're building castles of sand

This push and pull game it cuts like a knife
The more it hurts the more I feel alive
You look so handsome but I feel so blind
Never mind

Yesterday doesn't matter
Cause my love is the only mentor
Each moment fulfills my heart
That's why my eyes are
Shining so bright

Yesterday doesn't matter
Cause my love is the only mentor
Each moment fulfills my heart
That's why my eyes are
Shining so bright

Love is all we need
And we're gonna get it on tonight
Wanna make everything complete
Flying to the sky

Love is all we wanna find
And we have done no-no-nothing wrong
I will never change my mind
And this song
