

Haters forgive me if I sing
But it's my only true belief
Singing is the way that I scream
In this reality
Yes haters please forgive me
I know my voice can sound weird but
Music is my own therapy
And that is all I need

So leave me my remedy
My melodies
My only reasons
To go on till the dawn
I refuse to move on
If you kill my songs

Cure...

Can you show me a little mercy?
I know I'm young, I'm still growing up
Messing up in life is human
So why break down my walls
With your censure and your frustration
Nothing that we do is ever worthy but
I don't care if I lose my battles
I'm giving it my all

So leave me my remedy
My melodies
My only reasons
To go on till the dawn
I refuse to move on
If you kill my songs

Cure...

So leave me my remedy
My melodies
My only reasons
To go on till the dawn
I refuse to move on
If you kill my songs

Cure...
