

Dirty

Loïc Nottet

The playground kids are all the same
They stick together for the game
As they grow up the friendships change
Insulting starts, it's the teen age

Children!
Listen!

I'm down on my knees
Friends now enemies

I'm not looking pretty
Spat upon with hate and mockery
People wanna hurt and injure me
So now the kids are looking dirty
I get sick of trying
I'm worn out fighting prejudice
Wiping off those dirty offenses
So now the kids are looking dirty

The scars and scrapes don't make them frail
Your words won't put them down again
Inside they're damaged but they'll still
Show you that they don't give a shhh...

Children!
Listen!

I'm left standing here
Daring you to throw your stones

I'm not looking pretty
Spat upon with hate and mockery
People wanna hurt and injure me
So now the kids are looking dirty
I get sick of trying
I'm worn out fighting prejudice
Wiping off those dirty offenses
So now the kids are looking dirty
So now the kids are looking dirty
So now the kids are looking dirty

Why can't we all live in peace
We've got the world at our feet
But still you keep on hating
Cuz you're different than me
Don't wanna make no enemies
I just wished that I was free
Run the world like whoop
Be who we wanna be
Ya'll keep hating each other
Although you call yourselves brothers
And now you're looking at me
Like who's the next one to suffer
But we can't stop the heat
We keep it hot on the beat
Now we're about to show the world

What we're destined to be yeah
(La-la-la...)
Now we're about to show the world
What we're destined to be yeah
(La-la-la...)
Now we're about to show the world
What we're destined to be yeah

So we're not looking pretty
Spat upon with hate and mockery
People wanna make us feel messy
Children!

We're not looking pretty
Spat upon with hate and mockery
People wanna make us feel dirty
So now the kids are looking dirty

We get sick of trying
We're worn out fighting prejudice
Wiping off those dirty offenses
So now the kids are looking dirty

Yes we're looking dirty
But this will not bring us down
Messy children
Messy children
Yes we're looking dirty
But this will not bring us down
Messy children
Messy children
