

Liar

Loïc Nottet

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh...

You lie
To have it all your way
So goodbye
I'm never gonna stay
Please try
There's no more time to play

So, come on
So, come on
So, come on
Tell me what's real

You don't
Agree with anything
And I won't
Believe you anyway
Alone
I'm gonna walk away

So, come on
So, come on
So, come on
Time is up

Stop being a liar
You need me around
Your words on fire
Will let you down
Stop being a liar
You look like a clown
Your words on fire
Will let you down

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh...

You cry
To make me feel the pain
And your lies
Are messing up my brain
Stood by
You every single day

So, come on
So, come on
So, come on
Tell me what's real

I've tried
But you're not listening
So, tell me
It's coming to an end
You hide
From your reality

So, come on

So, come on
So, come on
Time is up

Stop being a liar
You need me around
Your words on fire
Will let you down
Stop being a liar
You look like a clown
Your words on fire
Will let you down

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh...

Never knew, never knew, it would break us down
Never knew, it would break us down
Never knew, never knew, it would break us down
Never knew, it would break us down
Never knew, never knew, it would break us down
Never knew, it would break us down
Never knew, never knew, it would break us down
Never knew, it would break us

Stop being a liar
You need me around
Your words on fire
Will let you down
Stop being a liar
You look like a clown
Your words on fire
Will let you down

Stop being a liar
You need me around
Your words on fire
Will let you down
Stop being a liar
You look like a clown
Your words on fire
Will let you down
Down, down, down (stop being)

Stop being
Stop being
Stop being
Stop being
Stop being a liar now
