

Man Down

Loïc Nottet

Lost in the way by sleep
I bleed and I bite my tongue
Made there was not a deal
To love you and touch you, girl
Now I'll pay for my mistake
Now I know that all was fake

Weapon, take your weapon
Come close to me, close to me
Your gun, take your gun
And shoot on me
Shot on me, me, me, me

It was not my choice to leave you now
My only real dream was you and I
It was not my choice to be their victim
And never be allowed to find
Too perfect you and I

Lost in my mind, I see
Or lost just in unfair game
I'll never trust in love again
Love's just summary of pain

Your hands, lay your hands
You can choke me, can choke me
The knife, take your knife
You can stab me
Can stab me, me, me, me

It was not my choice to leave you now
My only real dream was you and I
Never prayed to be your leaving tear
And never ever guts to save
Too perfect you and I

Now look at my eyes
Look what you've done to this soul
Which we never gonna, never gonna, never gonna undo
Now look at my heart
Look what you've done to this boy
Which we never gonna, never gonna, never gonna undo

Can't you save my heart
Bleeding it's loud crying
Can't you save my soul
Leaving my corpse, scream in me

And it was not my choice to die right now
My hands up to the sky
Try to touch the light
It was not my choice to be their victim
And never be allowed to find
Too perfect you and I
