

Wolves

Loïc Nottet

Run, run, run, far from me
I feel your hunger
I'm trying, trying, trying
To keep you away but I
This feeling's stronger

So should I go?
Escape me
You'd let me go?
Honestly not my wish at all

Cause I'm howling like a wolf
I'm shouting out my soul
I'm flirting with the moon
I'm calling out to you
Cause I'm howling like a wolf

Hide, hide, hide, hide away
But you will find me
We're hoping, hoping, hoping, love will
Find a way but that
Will not be easy

Cause I'm howling like a wolf
You're shouting out my soul
I'm flirting with the moon
I'm calling out to you
Cause I'm howling like a wolf

Now the curse is on you
I'm already bound to you
The beast is in your bones
This pact will make us one
The one...
You're turning into a wolf

Now we're howling like the wolves
We're shouting out our souls
We're flirting with the moon
I'm calling out to you (to me)
Cause we're howling like the wolves
