

Defy and Surrender

Local H

The bloody noses
Get their doses
Of halitosis
If one supposes
A war of roses

Shoplifter collared
At Family Dollar
At Apple Holler
They got Rhode scholars
Go get your father
Go get your father

Back on the floor until we name your replacement
Back on the floor until we name your replacement
She's gonna blow

A diorama
Of molten magma
A post Obama
Psychodrama
Go call your mama
Call your mama
Call your mama
Call your mama

Call your mama
Call your mama

Call out for Shane
The dude's insane
The bellicose reign of varicose veins

Defy and surrender, defy and surrender
Your final surrender, a defiant surrender
It's a national stain
The dude's insane

Back on the floor until they name your replacement
Back on the floor until they name your replacement
She's gonna blow

Laugh it off, kid
Yeah it's all rigged
There's birthday cake at the American wake

Defy and surrender, defy and surrender
Your final surrender, a defiant surrender
Yeah, it's all rigged
So fuck you, kid

Back on the floor until we name your replacement
Back on the floor until they name your replacement
She's gonna blow

Surrender
Surrender

Surrender
Surrender
Surrender

She's gonna blow
She's gonna blow
She's gonna blow
She's gonna blow
