Hands On The Bible

Hands on the Bible scared like a child God holds you liable for what you've done homicidal stared down your idols a pretty baby never born you cant believe it you didnt mean it but they saw you do it and they know your name rats in the attic toys in the cellar she's an addict he wants to learn hands on the bible egomaniacal as you screw yourself into oblivion worn and faded stoned and jaded you'll have to face it on your own smashed on the pavement stunned in amazement everything you make comes crawling back to you you can't believe it you didn't mean it but they saw you do it and they know your name so hands on the bible scared like a child God holds you liable for what you've done homicidal stared down your idols a pretty baby never to be born you can't pretend that you dont know the reasons for the REPENT at your side hands on the bible hands on the bible hands on the bible hands on the bible