

Innocents, you wanna bleed again, alright
Innocents are being freed again, that's fine

They wrote you off the show
But its' not like you know
Who they said you'd ever be again
They lied

Innocents, you wanna bleed again, alright, alright
A testament to the living dead, alright, alright
Innocents, you wanna bleed again
Innocents are being freed again, alright

Envious of the oblivious, that's right
We came too late and stayed too long last night
What you do in the war
To make them like you know more

Innocents are freed again, alright, alright
A testament to the living dead, alright, alright
Into the abyss with the oblivious, alright, alright

Innocents, you wanna bleed again
Innocents are being freed again, alright
Alright...

Innocents, you wanna bleed again, that's fine
Innocents are being freed again, alright

Hit the threes and the fours
I wish you to know if you're bored
Who they said you'd ever be again, they lied

Innocents, you wanna bleed again, alright, alright
A testament to the living dead, alright, alright
Into the abyss with the oblivious, alright, alright
Innocents, you wanna bleed again, alright, alright
Innocents, you wanna bleed again
Innocents are being freed again
Innocents, you're free again tonight!...
