

Raincoat

Local Natives

Watching blood circle the drain
I can laugh at my mistakes
Descanso over the bridge
Do not hold my hand through this

Our garden under the lake
The crowds are gathering
I tell you "Don't be afraid"
With your raincoat over my face

Don't want you to change
Ah ah ah
But I know you can't stay
This way
If I fall into the sea
Will you follow me?

Cracked up with tears in your eyes
Betrayal comes as no surprise
The rain is still on the streets
And there is nobody
With us on Inverness drive
To every silver swan, goodbye
It's hard to leave them behind
We just got used to life

Don't want you to change
Ah ah ah
But I know you can't stay
This way
If I fall into the sea
Will you follow me?

Golden sand, waving me in
Hold me now
Breath in again

Golden sand, waving me in
Hold me now
Breath in again
