A String

Loch Lomond

Thinking of you
Is like holding a string
From here to Iceland
It's been nine days

Where are the others?
It's been nine days now
Join the others

(Thinking of you)
At this point you know you have won
And we are all pitching in
And tomorrow we will start again

Thinking of you
Is like holding a string
From here to Iceland
Thinking of you
Is like holding a string
It's been nine years
Thinking of you
Is like holding a string
It's been nine years
Thinking of you
Is like holding a string
It's been nine years
Thinking of you
(Join the others)
It's been nine years
(Join the others)
