

Demonization

Lock Up

Lusting power devoid of pain
Seeking power through your bloody rage
Crawling man through the burning embers
Reach for power while you shred conviction
Burning opus through depictions
Timbers burning in divergent
Cap the flame through all your hate
Lust your power and devoid your pain

Lusting power distorted implications
Rob our kind with your verbal confrontation
Temples of your fallen word
Crown of thorns from your swollen herd
Whisper darkness the starving heard
Gliding wings on your blackened bird
Kill the soldiers of the bloated nation
Rape the core of a dying nation

Demonization

We're creatures of our own creation
Defined by laws of above our confrontation
To cast a light into the fire
Watch the love of hope dragged through our satire

We'll watch the eagles fly
We'll watch the eagles glide
All watch the eagle die

When the demons rage

Stab through the heart with a pinnacle force
Criminal acts from the powers at hand
Lies the course, guilt the sin
Torn from life as you cut through the man

Diseased within the malignant
Distressed mind within the cancer
Craving life from the faithful
A life beyond it's destruction
Stabbed through the heart from a merciless lord
Carved through faith with the wisdom of word
Torn from life, torn from kind
Torn from a life once was kind

When demons rage within a culture
And life perverts its misgivings
Reach for life ever lasting
Saviour or betrayer...

Mental prison - unforgiven
Demons raging - it's unforgiven, unforgiven
