

The Decay Within the Abyss

Lock Up

A hornets nest of contradictions
Divisive webs of confrontation
Spinning yarns empowering eggs
The powerless should not bare witness

The powerless should not bare witness
To the decay that thrives within the abyss

Corrosive character assassination
Recoiling mental manipulation
A running wheel of accusation
The powerless should not bare witness

The powerless should not bare witness
To the decay that thrives within the abyss

Recite the mantra as the morning dawns
This anxious heart is beating like a drum
Breathe in the silence as fatigue erupts
Dispel the shadow that corrupts your thoughts

The decay that thrives within
The decay that thrives within the abyss

Unhinge the blindness from the hooks of guilt
Deny the offerings the truth has spilled
Look forwards at the past and grasp the hope
Accept the prophecy, fulfil the oath

The decay that thrives within
The decay that thrives within the abyss

A hornets nest of contradictions
Divisive webs of confrontation
A running wheel of accusation
The powerless should not bare witness

The powerless should not bare witness
