

The Plague That Stalks the Darkness

Lock Up

Purge me from my selfish crusade
Into oblivions arms
Rescue mortality's scraps
From the carcass of willpower

Embrace the plague that stalks the darkness
Sadistic creations
Embrace the plague that stalks the darkness
Satanic hallucinations

Grasping from within my mind
Torturing the weakness
The urge within me cries and dies
As I sugarcoat the pain

Embrace the plague that stalks the darkness
Sadistic creations
Embrace the plague that stalks the darkness
Satanic hallucinations

Hallucinations

Through the endless maze of guilt
The fury of my own mistakes
This life is of my own design
For which I pay the price
For which I pay the price

Scissors slice through our emotions
Abstract the mirrors of the mind
The gaping maw that craves ferocity
Contorts the fragile heart

Grasping from within my mind
Torturing the weakness
The urge within me cries and dies
As I sugarcoat the pain

Scissors slice through our emotions
Abstract the mirrors of the mind
The gaping maw that craves ferocity
Contorts the fragile heart

Purge me from my selfish crusade
Into oblivions arms
Rescue mortality's scraps
From the carcass of willpower

Embrace the plague that stalks the darkness
Sadistic creations
Embrace the plague that stalks the darkness
