

Black Ajax

Locksley

I got my sunlight laughs and my moonlight grins
And the ladies like whiskey and the boys drop gins
When all the mas and the pas tell 'em please to go away
And when all the motherfers were coming out to play

That's when I'm rollin' in, rollin' in
You hear me rollin' in, rollin' in
You see me rollin' in, rollin' in
You feel me rollin' in, rollin' in

All the fellas call my name and the girlies pull my hair
They like my ties and my shoes and f 'em if they dare, now
Scream it loud if you can, lookin' lookin' mighty fine
The way you move, shake your head, lick your lips, now they're on me

'Cos now I'm rollin' in, rollin' in
You hear me rollin' in, rollin' in
You see me rollin' in, rollin' in
You feel me rollin' in, rollin' in

(Up on?) my heads and my toes, my skins and my bones
And the whole earth shakes from the rattle of your moans
And when the sunlight laughs and the moon comes in You're desperate, my lady, when you hear me rollin' in

Rollin' in, rollin' in
You hear me rollin' in, rollin' in
You see me rollin' in, rollin' in
You feel me rollin' in, rollin' in
