

The World Isn't Waiting

Locksley

Time to come home, time to sit down
Time left to spare
Time on my own, time all alone
Time left to share

The world isn't waiting for your love to show
And no, no one can stop this tired heart from beating

Time to be old, time to be young
Time to go anywhere at all
Time to be cold, time to have fun
Time for everyone

The world isn't waiting for your love to show
And no, no one can stop this tired heart from beating
My heart's still beating

Love: it never ends
Love: for you my friend
Love, love

Time to hold on, time to let go
Time to admit what you don't know
Time now to stay, time now to leave
Not enough time for me

The world isn't waiting for your love to show
And no, no one can stop this tired heart from beating
My heart's still beating

Slow
