Too much
The curves are too much
The length of pulled-up skirt is too much
My gaze that moves down is too much
(Sorry)

I'm too ordinary to make you stop and turn
Around the high heel kicks that you step on
The height of guys is too much
I want to feel drowsy with steady steps
But my heartbeat is too much
My unfocused eyes may seem to tell you to keep walking
I can't pass by
I just watch
Like I'm watching an R-rated movie alone
I don't know what to do
My arms and legs won't move
In fact, I don't want to meet your eyes
I feel as though my blessed life
Would get messy or go wrong

Too much
The curves are too much
The length of pulled-up skirt is too much
My gaze that moves down is too much

Can I get a oh yeah oh yeah
You're too much but I like it
Ok her dance
Is too much but I like it
Like spring breezes past my nose
You pass by me yeah

Even when I imagine you secretly
I hope it doesn't reach you this time
Although my pockets are full now
I need to release this album ASAP
Don't give me a drink, bartender
Window, don't blow wind in this direction
It's already enough for me
Don't you ever

Pass by me anymore, oh yeah, nope
If this feeling is just counting my chickens
No more, yeah
Even if this is the chance god has given me I'm concerned
(Oh wait)
This has never happened before
I don't care yeah
I don't wanna care-ay-ay-yeah
DJ play it again again

Too much
The curves are too much
The length of pulled-up skirt is too much
My gaze that moves down is too much

Hey baby
Can I get a oh yeah oh yeah
You're too much but I like it
Ok her dance
Is too much but I like it
Like spring breezes past my nose
You pass by me yeah
