Whoo...
Yeah

I'm starting to draw it out
Just like I saw
Aren't you sick

Of all of the same shapes?

I don't care for imitation
I'm playing around with this uptight world
I'll spray on the dark night sky's color
With my own color
I have plenty of time

Going on a path someone decided for you is no fun
A special wrong answer shines more
From now on, find the path that you want
Go go go go
(We are so young)

No more thoughts that are measured with a ruler
Do whatever you want instead of what's nice
Just like how you feel right now
Do it, do it, throw yourself

No more of what you don't wanna do
Do what you want instead of what's typical
Be free, yeah, have some lawless ideas
You're still so young

If you did what they told you to do
You wouldn't be able to hear
If you only used your shoulder to put on your backpack
You wouldn't be able to dance
Thin out all the decisions you made by being cautious
You have other results that you want
If you become crooked without anyone knowing
In the end, everyone will remember you

The reason you know my name is because you're so young
If you watched TV six years ago
You would know, my beginning was 0
Now you love me with that XOXOXO
So don't try to force yourself to grow up
Just let it young, let's go

No more thoughts that are measured with a ruler
Do whatever you want instead of what's nice
Just like how you feel right now (Let it all go)
Do it, do it, throw yourself (Let it all go)

No more of what you don't wanna do (Let's go crazy)
Do what you want instead of what's typical
Be free, yeah, have some lawless ideas
(Make dreams high up in the air)
You're still so young
Whoo...

Time will decide whether you win or lose
What you can or can't do will be decided only when you're young (Go harder)
I make my own way and I'm gonna go farther ahead
(Take it over)
Shake everything up, make it new
(Who can say anything? I'll do what I want)
You can go anywhere you want (whatever you do, it's alright)

What's definite is inside of me
However my heart goes, whatever I want

It's a paradigm that only I can make, baby
(We are so young)

No more thoughts that are measured with a ruler
Do whatever you want instead of what's nice
Just like how you feel right now
Do it, do it, throw yourself

No more of what you don't wanna do
Do what you want instead of what's typical
Be free, yeah, have some lawless ideas
(Make dreams high up in the air)
You're still so young
