

Toxic Heart

Logan Michael

So in love at a young age
I thought the whole world
Was meant for me and you
You were my addiction, my oasis
Couldn't shake it, girl
You know that's the truth
I always wished you were the one
But I guess we just came undone
And I'm the one that's left screwed

Was I just not enough?
Or am I too hard to love?
Was it easy leavin' me lonely?
You treated this like it's a game
I fell for you and I got played
Maybe forever just wasn't meant for me
I shoulda known it from the start
You would tear my world apart
Now I'm broken
Thanks to your toxic heart

You look much happier now that you are not with me
And it kills me
Seein' you with someone else
Seems like you didn't care at all
Built me up to watch me fall
Honestly, I jst can't tell

Was I just not enough?
Or am I too hard to love?
Was it easy leavin' me lonely?
You treated this like it's a game
I fell for you and I got played
Maybe forever just wasn't meant for me
I shoulda known it from the start
You would tear my world apart
Now I'm broken
Thanks to your toxic heart
