

Life Before You

Logan Mize

Ever feel left behind
Like the whole world forgot about you
You scream at the sky above but no one seems to care
Every dream you ever had just fades to black
And you're a lost ship sinking

That was my life before you
Sure enough, now I'm pulling through
No looking back down that lonely stretch of road
That was my life before you

Sunflowers in a mason jar
Lipstick "I love you" on the bathroom mirror
Might not sound like much but it's all I need to hear
This old guitar played out of tune
Couldn't find a song worth singing

That was my life before you
Sure enough, now I'm pulling through
No looking back down that lonely stretch of road
That was my life before you

That was my life before you
Sure enough, now I'm pulling through
No looking back down that lonely stretch of road
That was my life before you
That was my life before you
That was my life before you
