

Used Up

Logan Mize

If you don't love me anymore go on and just say so
Don't you worry 'bout me, you gotta go you gotta go
I always knew deep down in my heart it was too good to be true
Me and you
Yeah but that's just the way life goes sometimes
Hey I don't like it but that's just life
Yeah I still love you but I'll be fine
I'll be alright

If it's used up go on and throw it away
Like you don't need none
I guess it's time for me to saddle up
I got no reason to stay and watch you cry or something
I don't wanna see you crying
Don't know where I'll be going
Just for the sake of knowing
I gave you all my good stuff
Now I'm just used up

Anyway, I always dreamed about
A place somewhere out west
Little canvas teepee by a mountain alone
Probably suit me best
I must confess, I don't need much
Tuned up guitar, good running pick-up truck
No I don't even mind a little quarter panel rust
The only thing missin' would be your love
And hey, forget my love

Cause it's used up
Yeah you threw it away
Like you don't need none
I guess it's time for me to s-s-saddle up
I got no reason to stay and watch you cry or something
I don't wanna see you crying
Don't know where I'll be going
Just for the sake of knowing
I gave you all my good stuff
Yeah I'm just used up

Stomped out like your cigarette
Guess this is done as it gets
My darlin' now you listen here, alright
Hey!
Yeah you remember laughing
We were singing along to that
Roger Miller record that you got from your mom
Havin' ice cream for supper on a Saturday night
And I told you right then that for the rest of my life
I would love you
And nobody else
So I gave it all away, yeah I gave it all away

And I'm used up
And you got nothin' to say
Like you don't care or something
I guess it's time for me to s-s-saddle up

And just ride away like it all meant nothing
It all meant nothing
I'm used up
Yeah you threw it away
Like you don't need none
I guess it's time to s-s-saddle up
I got no reason to stay and watch you cry or something
I don't wanna see you crying
Don't know where I'll be going
Just for the sake of knowing,
I gave you all my good stuff
Now I'm just used up

Yeah I'm used up
MMMMMMMMMM
Used Up
