

Who Didn't

Logan Mize

Who didn't drive in granddaddy's lap
Skin their knee when the tire got flat
Have old wooden spoons hanging up on the wall of the kitchen
Yeah, who didn't

Who didn't get their hair cut at the house
Swim in a pool that was all above ground
Have one pair of boots for work and they went to church in 'em
Yeah, who didn't

Work like hell
Pray in the huddle
Cruise 'round a two-lane no name bubble
Put it in park for some cold beer kissing
We didn't know anybody who didn't
Mow their own yard
Fill their own tank
Check on the temp on the sign at the bank
Not everybody lived in those city limits
But we didn't know anybody who didn't

Yeah who didn't have a swing out on the porch
Burn up their fingers every July 4th
Save up for a new used car with the hubcap missing
Yeah, who didn't

Work like hell
Pray in the huddle
Cruise 'round a two-lane no name bubble
Put it in park for some cold beer kissing
We didn't know anybody who didn't
Mow their own yard
Fill their own tank
Check on the temp on the sign at the bank
Not everybody lived in those city limits
But we didn't know anybody who didn't

Who didn't fall in love
Grow up too fast
And try to leave and then come right back
If that ain't you then you don't know what you're missing

If you didn't work like hell
Pray in the huddle
Cruise 'round a two-lane no name bubble
Love that train track, laid back livin'
We didn't know anybody who didn't
Mow their own yard
Fill their own tank
Check on the temp on the sign at the bank
Not everybody lived in those city limits
But we didn't know anybody who didn't

Yeah, we didn't know anybody who didn't
Yeah
We didn't know anybody who didn't
