

Dreaming Wide Awake

Logar's Diary

Hazy shadows in the dark
Evil reaching for my heart
What is this? Who's brought me here?
Why can't I control my fear?
As my eyes begin to see
Dying creatures surrounding me
Forced to watch, standing still
Have to watch this bloody kill

Here lies my future,
There comes my fate
Black clouds before me
Blown here by hate
The air is contracting,
It's stealing my breath,
Pulling me downwards,
Where I meet my death

Shrieking voices, whispered cries
Within the tangle well known sighs
Is it you? Can't you come near?
Someone tell me why we're here!
As my body starts to feel
Aching old wounds become unsealed
Forced to bleed, compelled to kneel
Have to watch this bloody kill

See the flames greeting from down below where water used to flow

Feel the flames
They greet from below
Feel the fire, it climbs and grows
Meet the flames,
Watch the show
As it flares and flows,
As I start to glow
Feel the flames
Creeping up from my head to my legs,
Slowly closing me up inside,
Breathe the smoke,
Feel new pride
See how I grow!
