Made a million and another million and I made it out

The complication in the game, erasing the name
Pain, what a lot of money bring
Gotta maintain for the gang-gang, for the bloodline of mine
Can only take so much, feel like everywhere I look
The people crook, really wanna take from us
Need a break, need an escape, need to cut cake
But you can't escape the fate
Everybody fake, everybody take
Everybody want what they can't have Can't laugh, can't have happiness 'cause you's a bitch
