Man, what the fuck, man? Man, how you get so good at chess?

When I was a little boy, my father told me about how his great-great-great grandfather Clark robbed this traincar full of gold with his gang. And during the robbery, there was a chess tournament being held in first class. It was such a cool story, I decided to learn how to play. Kai? Kai!

What? What? What?

Goddammit, dude! I'm telling a story here, what the fuck?

I heard you!

What did I just...no, you did not. What did I just say?
