All these comments got me lost in my mind
All these thoughts that I'm having are not mine
I always post that I'm having a good time
So my life looks perfect online
She said she never done some shit like this befo'
Suck my dick until I nut and then I go
I want a good girl but I always fuck with hoes
I love drugs, I pop pills, I do blow blow blow
I think this girl at the club wants to fuck me
And I really think her boyfriend wants to fuck me up

You're the reason that I'm up all night
You're the reason that I get no sleep
You say my music ain't shit when I creep
Say I should empty the whole bottle in my mouth like Peep
And overdose, immortalise myself
While the media use my death, monetise they wealth
RIP, Lil Peep, let that young man sleep
Let that young man death teach
The youth, the streets, to beat addiction
Yeah that's my diction, moment of silence

I don't do the Breakfast Club 'cause Charlemagne is shameless
That's the only one I leave out when I run my bases
Do your research 'fore you call somebody homophobic
You make a living offa controversy and you know it
I ain't that type of artist, respect my name or we can talk abo ut it
I'd suck a dick, just to prove it ain't that way Nigga, what?
99 percent don't listen what I say (You gay)
Quote that line, but leave out all the mental health
Slap a bitch in her face, then I count my wealth
That's the shit they want yeah, that's the shit they need
That's the shit make people click, that's the shit that make me sip so

You are amazing, you are amazing, you are amazing, you are
You are amazing, you are amazing, you are amazing, you are
You are incredible, you are incredible, you are incredible, you
