Quentin Thomas to Mission Control Babel. We've come across a ship. It looks alien. Nothing I've ever seen before.

I'm like, "Wait up"
Trying to get this paper
Trying to get this weight off my shoulders
I know they hate as I get older
But I'm like, "Wait up"
Trying to get this paper
Trying to get this weight off my shoulders
I know they hate as I get older
You gon' have to catch me now
Can't let a motherfucker best me now
Don't test me now, better arrest me now
I've been paper-chasing instead of facing all my demons
Feeling so complacent
Think I need a change like
Breaking a twenty, been breaking my mind down for money
Been, been breaking my mind for like over a decade to get paid

I'm done with this shit, let's have fun with shit
Finally won with this shit, finally won with myself
I've been basking in the blood of innocence
In a sense, I'm feeling infinite
Talking 'bout the way my mind work
Put the pen to the pad and make a universe
Fucking with Bobby and now you in hearse
Shouldn't of talk shit, just should've converse
In the first place
Moving at a good pace
Yeah, yeah
Someway, somehow, getting paid now
Keep my mental state light through the shade now
Lot of things going on in the world, ain't no way I can evade now
Gotta, gotta pray now
Ain't nothing to say now
Bullet proof vest what I need when they spray now
Feel like every other day now
A bullet's penetrating a child, erasing a smile

I'm like, "Wait up"
Trying to get this paper
Trying to get this weight off my shoulders
I know they hate as I get older
But I'm like, "Wait up"
Trying to get this paper
Trying to get this weight off my shoulders
I know they hate as I get older
You gon' have to catch me now
Can't let a motherfucker best me now
Don't test me now, better arrest me now
I've been paper-chasing instead of facing all my demons
Feeling so complacent
Think I need a change like
Breaking a twenty, been breaking my mind down for money
Been, been breaking my mind for like over a decade to get paid

I'm done with this-
