

We knew, we knew, we knew, we knew, we knew we Could never work out truly
Like Romeo loving Julie
Issues, issues, issues, issues, issues we Could never sort out truly

You don't even listen listen no more
You don't wanna see my point of view
So I don't even ask the question no more
'Cause I know I'll be wasting love on you

Anytime you wake and missing my voice
I pray that you play my latest song
I put all my feelings for you so
We could reason on radio

'Cause now it's over, over, over, over, over, over
Yeah yeah
And now it's over, over, over, over, over, over yeah yeah

Girl I pray that you find someone
And that you run and you don't look back
'Cause I'm my mind I'm a useless child
And for your heart I'm a toxic guy

How many times I apologize
How many times you go sacrifice
I feel the pain wey you keep inside
So I beg you make you stand aside o

But now you choose to me toxic about it
You know it's just gonna end in the process
I feel attached and it's causing me problems
I saw your phone who you call in the morning

Say make I cool you no get any reason
I was a fool fool fool for believing
Now all my feelings you hang on the ceiling
I should have cheated on you

'Cause now it's over, over, over, over, over, over
Yeah yeah
And now it's over, over, over, over, over, over yeah yeah
