

Sanity

Lola Amour

I've been told
That I've been going crazy
Losing my mind
Half of the time

Damn woman why won't you let me go free?
Damn woman damn woman
Caught in the thought of
What used to be mine
But your games won't work on me no more, no no

So tell me what you want from me
'Cause I don't know what else to do
You still got me on the leash
And these chains, I can't break through
Cause I know that you're gone
But your spirit lives on
In my mind
In my heart
In my soul
And, I know if I don't
Oh, move one
I can't keep this up longer
It's eating away at me
I'll say goodbye to my sanity

I won't tell you that I'm doing fine
You still got a grip on me

Damn woman why won't you send me a sign?
Damn woman damn woman
Got me so blind, so blind that I can't see
But your games won't work on me no more, no no
'Cause ever since you left
I've not known which way to go

So tell me what you want from me
'Cause I don't know what else to do
You still got me on the leash
And these chains, I can't break through
Cause I know that you're gone
But your spirit lives on
In my mind
In my heart
In my soul
And, I know if I don't
Oh, move one
I can't keep this up longer
It's eating away at me
I'll say goodbye to my sanity

So tell me what you want from me
'Cause I don't know what else to do
Cause I know that you're gone

In my mind
In my heart
In my soul
And, I know if I don't
Oh, move one
