

Only World

Lomelda

Look at me
I can see you don't know where you've been
Sorry you missed it, the daymoon was out again
I thought it knew me
Felt like the only world

And listen up now
The time it took to give up everything
Was no time at all
Like waking in a dream
I knew it had to leave me soon
Wondering where in the world are you?

When I get it
I'll give it all I got this time
Maybe this time

Just look at me now
And look at you now
We're not where I thought we would be right now
I'm still here in the only world
So next time I get it
I'll give it all I got this time
